WOUNDED WARRIOR PROJECT

January 19, 2008

The HURT 100 on Camp Arifjan was supposed to be a simple event, but took off with an unexpected vigor. In the process it was an opportunity for me to make a difference in some Soldier's life. I wanted to involve the Soldiers in my unit, so they could experience something bigger than self.

The Wounded Warrior Project was definitely the best choice. However, I never anticipated the event would culminate with a total of $11,783.41 total money raised for the Wounded Warrior Project. Your contribution speaks volumes of your character as it shows your continued support to our Army and Warriors.

I personally feel proud to be associated with each of you during this event and sincerely thank you for being part of the HURT 100 this past January. The smiles and the difference your contribution will make in the life of a Wounded Warrior are priceless.

The memories of this event will remain with me for the rest of my life as I hope remain with you while recognizing that this event could have not been successful without your contribution.

All checks, money orders and cash have been mailed to the Wounded Warrior Project home office in Jacksonville, FL on 13 Mar 2007. If there are any questions please let me know.

Respectfully,
